

New Mexico Alliance for Minority Participation

APPLY NOW - Spring 2024

DEADLINE TO APPLY: December 15, 2023 for NMSU; January 26, 2024 for the other Institutions

STEM PREP

Eligibility:

- U.S. citizenship or permanent resident per NSF guidelines
- Full-time enrollment in a STEM discipline
- Minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5
- A strong interest in and potential for graduate studies is also considered

BENEFITS INCLUDE

EXPLORING RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Mentorship through a faculty-member at your institution and exposure to a research project in your field

LEARN ABOUT FUTURE RESEARCH TRAINING

You will learn about the valuable training you will receive in the next NM AMP research program, the Undergraduate Research Scholars (URS) program, such as lab safety, effective record keeping, and basic research techniques and methods you will need for more advanced research

$1,000 STIPEND

Financial Assistance to help compensate for time committed during the program

Application: https://nmamp.nmsu.edu/applications/stem_prep.html

or scan me:

For more info please contact the administration office of NM:
575-646-1846

